Old News.

Tucson, Ariz. (AP)—Iron-like lumps found while excavating Elkin Run, five miles east of Flagstaff, are declared by E. S. Holcomen, geologist, of the Arizona Bureau of Mines, to be fragments of a meteorite which may have fallen a thousand years ago. Dean Cummings, of the State University, believes Indians probably saw it fall and took it to their people to worship.

96 Attended Child Guidance Talk

The three-day conference on the young child was completed Thursday. Ninety-six parents registered for the course of three lectures which was given by Dr. Marguerite Wilker, professor child guidance, Cornell University. The alert parent today recognizes that merely becoming a parent does not bring knowledge and ability necessary to wisely guide a child's development. Definite study of behavior and its development aids much in promoting desirable behavior in children and promoting undesirable behavior.

From birth the child is learning every minute of the day. He may learn desirable ways of behaving or undesirable ways of behaving. What he does depends upon his guidance. Dr. Wilker discussed a list of habits which a young child can learn. Often too much direct training of a child is attempted with the result that he learns nothing, will and may become highly resistant in general.

Suitable procedures in developing these habits were also discussed, and methods used in the child guidance laboratory at Cornell were described. In this laboratory, 16 young children are developing desirable habits under the guidance of expert teachers. The parents pay a large tuition and attend meetings in order to discuss child development. There are more than 30 laboratories for young children established in the United States.

The second three lectures of the series of six lectures will be given on November 14, 15, 16. The subjects of the lectures are:
Should Children Obey?
Suitable Toys for Young Children.
Success in Guiding Young Children.

COLDS MAY DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA
Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified crocote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.
Of all known drugs, crocote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to crocote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the crocote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germ.
Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

"I'm solid for Chesterfield"

Mild enough for anybody ... and yet they Satisfy*

*A PLAIN, unvarnished statement of fact: "Mild enough for anybody and yet they satisfy". If you will light a Chesterfield and smoke it critically you will find no hint of harshness, but a certain mildness, with a rich, wholesome flavor. Chesterfields satisfy without being harsh. They're mild without being insipid or tasteless.

Attorney Tuttle To Speak Tuesday

Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of St. James M. E. Church. United States Attorney Charles Tuttle will speak to the people of Kingston and vicinity on "Law, Liberty and License." There will be an admission charged as the League for Law Enforcement Committee of this county. Mrs. Harry F. Van Wagon, chairman, is bringing Mr. Tuttle to Kingston.

At the meeting last Thursday evening of some of the up-town churches in the interest of formally objecting to Sunday movies, Dr. John Ferguson of New York city, the speaker, prefaced his own talk by congratulating those present on the victory soon to be theirs of hearing Mr. Tuttle deliver this very lecture, as he considered it a masterpiece and intensely interesting to all thinking people.

New Tillson Road Nears Completion

The finishing touches are being put on the Tillson-New Paltz road by way of Springtown. The roadway has been completed for the entire distance and the shoulders are now being finished on the New Paltz end of the road. This gives an improved road the entire distance on the west side of the Wallkill.

A few days more will be required by the contractor, who has been eliminating the curves at DeWitt's Mills on the Kingston-Rosendale road, before the roadway will be entirely completed. The road has been diverted to the east through a deep rock cut which eliminates the steep grade, narrow bridge and dangerous curve at the bottom of the hill under the old cement company railroad bridge. The new road bed has been completed on one side for the entire distance and there remains but a few hundred feet of roadway now to be completed. By a fill on the site of the old DeWitt Mill the road has been run straight through a rock ledge and across the creek just downstream from the old location.

Republicans to Rally Thursday

Corporation Counsel Harry H. Flemming and William McClellan of New York city will be the speakers at the big Republican rally and mass meeting to be held Thursday evening in Pythian Hall Broadway and Thomas street. Mr. Flemming is well known as an interesting speaker. Mr. McClellan is chairman of the New York Engineers' Hoover Committee, and is said to be a very interesting and entertaining speaker. Both men will discuss the issues of the campaign and every one is invited to attend the mass meeting.

SPECIAL MUSICAL SERVICE DRAWS BIG CONGREGATION

St. John's Episcopal Church on Albany avenue was filled Sunday evening with lovers of the best in church music and a beautiful program was given by the organist, Robert Williams, and the choir of boys and men trained by him.

There was reverence and worship in the singing of the English Cathedral music as well as fine musicianship which is always an outstanding mark of the musical efforts of Mr. Williams. The practically perfect pitch and beauty of tone of the lovely boy voices was truly spiritual in effect. To have a boy in St. John's choir is to give him a rare musical training and character building.

There was just one criticism of the service voiced by many, and that was a word of regret that Mr. Williams played but two organ numbers in addition to the Eustade. Mr. Williams is a very real organist.

The special musical service on the last Sunday in November will be of Harvest Thanksgiving music.

Home Service Lesson.

Miss Elizabeth Plank of the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation will give a home service lesson at the auditorium, 5 Field Court, Tuesday evening at 7:30. The subject will be "Recipes from Foreign Lands." This lesson will demonstrate such unusual delicacies as Sicilian rice, wax bean à la bonne femme, Italian rolls Spanish bun.

Shepherds to Hold Card Party. The Shepherds of Bethlehem, No. 35, will hold a card party Thursday evening, November 1, in Mechanics Hall. Prizes and refreshments. The public is invited. Games called at 8:30.

Myth About Monkeys

It is often stated that monkeys sometimes cross streams by means of "monkey bridges." We doubt, says the Pathfinder Magazine, whether anybody has positive knowledge of monkeys forming a bridge by taking hold of each other in order to cross a stream. Monkeys do, however, hang on to one another from time to time and sometimes one will seize and climb up the tail of another. One will even sometimes draw another up.

Dr. William M. Mann, director of the National Zoological park, believes the story about monkeys making a bridge was suggested by the maneuvering of the spider monkeys of South America.

Boy Stowaway on Graf Zeppelin

though smiling with relief the morning air, and then a roar of five great engines split the night.

Shots Upward Towed Moon. Propelled by these engines the Graf Zeppelin shot upward toward the moon and circled majestically overhead. Once in the air all its sluggishness seemed to have vanished. From an ungainly brute such as barreled in mud and wallowed across the wastes in time before man was known, it suddenly had become a fairy thing, light and graceful, and utterly scornful of the human help which had been so needful to it on the ground.

In a large circle it swung about the air station that had been its temporary home since its arrival from Germany and then headed eastward toward the ocean it must cross to return to its home station. It started into the air at 1:54 this morning and at 2 it was nothing more than a gray blot against the moon. And then it was nothing at all.

The Graf Zeppelin, come to America from across the seas, had gone back whence it came.

During the first hour of flight Captain Hugo Eckener, pilot of the Graf Zeppelin, dispatched three messages of thanks for the reception given the dirigible crew while in America. One was addressed to the commanding officer here, one to the secretary of the navy and one to President Coolidge.

U. S. Navy Officers Aboard. Three United States Navy officers are aboard the Zeppelin as guest observers. They are Commander M. R. Pierce, executive officer of the Lakehurst naval air station; Lieutenant G. W. Settle, engineer officer of the Los Angeles, and Lieutenant C. E. Bauch, watch officer of the Los Angeles and flight officer of the station.

In addition to these, among the passengers are the following, making their first flight:

Mrs. Clara Adams, Tannersville, Pa., wife of George L. Adams, retired business man.

Donald M. Casto, Columbus, Ohio.

Joseph D. Jessel, New York city.

Colonel Allen Miller, New York and London financier.

Paul M. Marko, Brooklyn.

Richard J. Burke, Big Bear Lake, Cal.

Lady Grace Drummond Hay, who made the trip from Germany, remained in the United States. So did Karl Von Wiegand, newspaperman.

The big ship carries a crew of 40 officers and men.

One unexpected passenger was a six weeks old chow dog presented to Captain Von Schiller, one of the officers, a few hours before the dirigible sailed.

Thirty-two bags of mail were loaded aboard. The letters and post cards had been collected in New York, the letters prepaid at the rate of $1.05 and the cards at 53 cents each. They were brought to Lakehurst on the regular trains and transferred at the station.

341 Pounds of Freight.

Although regular freight service is not to be inaugurated until the Zeppelin's next American visit, four special consignments were accepted for this voyage of 8,000 pound. Among the shipments were a bale of cotton, some portable typewriters, a case of engraved copper plates, and a case of silk cloth. Their total weight was 341 pounds.

The Zeppelin weighed off just 14 days after her arrival. It was on October 15 that she sailed out of the south and cruised along the seaboard, making her bow to New York before turning about and landing at this airport.

Dr. Eckener said soon after he arrived that he planned to remain in America not more than 14 days because he feared that a longer stay would result in bad weather for a landing on the other side at the end of his return flight. He expected the return would take 50 hours.

The ship left on a North Atlantic course via New York and Long Island. The trip from Germany took 11 1/2 hours because storms forced the ship to a circuitous southern course.

COUNTY CONFERENCE OF P. T. ASSOCIATION.

The luncheon conference of the presidents of the Parent-Teacher Associations of Putnam county was held on Saturday at the Colonial Restaurant in Peekskill. The conference was presided over by the new chairman of the Poughkeepsie district, Mrs. Arthur H. Russell of Kingston. The former district chairman, Mrs. Harry S. Simmons, of Newburgh, who was elected at the New York State convention at Niagara Falls this October to one of the vice presidencies, was also present. Other district officers attending the conference were the secretary of the Poughkeepsie district, Mrs. W. R. Anderson, and the Ulster county chairman, Mrs. H. P. Dederick, both of Kingston; the Orange county chairman, Mrs. Fred Hopper, of Newburgh; the Putnam county chairman, Miss Catharine Reagan, of Mahopac Mines; the district press chairman, Mrs. Alice Van Leuwan; and the district Child Welfare Magazine chairman, Mrs. W. P. Kesteloo, both of Middletown. On Friday, October 19, Mrs. Russell presided at the Sullivan county conference held at Roscoe. On Saturday, November 3, the Ulster county conference will be held in Kingston.

Large Crowd at Masquerade. One of the largest crowds of the season attended the masquerade dance held at Lake Katrine Grange on Saturday night. Four prizes were awarded.

Card of Thanks. We wish to thank our many friends for their kind expression of sympathy shown during the illness and death of our dear mother, and for the many beautiful floral tributes.

BRITISH KING'S THIRD SON IS HINTED FOR HIGH POST.

Cape Town, South Africa (P)—The suggestion is being made in political circles, both here and in England, that the Duke of Gloucester, third son of the King of England, take over the governorship of South Africa when next it falls vacant.

The fact that political preparations are now under way to test the actual desire of the South African government shows that the suggestion has passed the "rumor" stage.

The present governor general is the 54-year-old Earl of Athlone, brother of Queen Mary. He has been in office since 1923 and last year consented to serve a second term only upon great pressure exerted by the South African government. His term expires in 1931, but he may, of course, resign whenever he likes.

The Duke of Gloucester is now in Africa with his brother, the Prince of Wales. He will go by easy stages, stopping for some big game hunts, from Nairobi down through Tanganyika, by way of Northeast Rhodesia, the Zambezi river and Lake Bangweulu, to the railway at Ndola. From there he will come on to Cape Town, arriving here in time for Christmas. While here he will meet important South African statesmen.

"OCEAN" IN KANSAS DEPIES SOUNDINGS.

Cawker City, Kas. (P)—There is a bit of "ocean" near the geographical center of the United States. On top of a cone-like hill three miles east of this northern Kansas town is a pool of salt water, some 30 feet in diameter and so deep that not even a sea diver has been able to find its bottom.

It is known as "Waconda Springs," "Waconda" being an Indian word meaning "the great spirit." A century ago Indians worshipped at the place and they believed the water to have medicinal qualities.

The hill where the water is found rises 50 or 60 feet above the surrounding terrain. It is believed by some persons to have been a small volcano, smothered by subterranean connection with an ocean.

Some geologists, however, have expressed the opinion the "spring" was a geyser that cooled off and settled down. The water never freezes and dry seasons. It has a marine odor and color.

Discarded Flour Bags Make Suitcase Outfit

The seasoned traveler betrays himself by the way her suitcase is packed. The woman who is used to forecasting like and you know just what to take and how to pack it so that at the end of the trip her clothes come out fresh and unwrinkled. What could be more useful, then, than the suitcase outfit shown here?

The set consists of a cover for blouses or frocks, a pair of shoe cases, a rubber-lined washcloth case and a case for gloves or handkerchiefs. And the entire set may be made for only fifty cents! Two used flour bags, two bits of colored bias tape and a small piece of gum rubber are the only materials required. The bags can be had at a bakery for a few cents each. The stamping is not difficult to remove if one will soak it in kerosene or cover it with lard for a few hours and then wash out in luke warm water.

To make the blouse cover, take a piece of the material a yard long and the width of the suitcase, usually about 22 inches. Bind this with the tape all the way round. The sides are left open. The ties are stitched in the center along one edge of the case and slipped through loops placed about six inches down on the other side. This makes them adjustable.

The shoe cases hold one shoe each. They are made out of two pieces of goods, cut as shown in the illustration. The larger is 17 inches long, the smaller, 12. The width across the top of the opening is 6½ inches. After the shoe is in, fold down the top and cross the ends and tie them behind.

The washcloth case is made of a strip of the flour bag material 6½ inches, and is lined with gum rubber. The button and loop buttonhole or the snap fastener should be put on before the lining and cover are bound together with the tape.

A strip of the material 3x12 will make a handkerchief case 3x9. For a gift, it is thoughtful to put in a tiny pocket on the inside to hold a small sachet.

Watch Food Values in Selecting Family's Diet

Every woman knows that when the mercury is flirting with the century mark something happens to the appetites of the members of her family. Good old meat and potatoes and pies, standbys for the rest of the year, somehow seem to pall. The thoughtful menu-maker, therefore, plans her summer meals to include much lighter food—plenty of crisp, appetizing salads, green vegetables and fresh fruits.

But there is one danger that should be guarded against in planning the ideal hot weather regimen. That is, in not getting sufficient real nourishment. Valuable and necessary as vegetables are for their minerals and vitamins, they do not contain the essential body building materials that children need to keep up their usual program of activities. A considerable amount of the enervation and lassitude which people feel after a heat wave of several days could probably be traced to their attempting to live solely on light foods.

One way of solving the hot weather food problem is to omit heavy foods, such as beans, much meat, gravies, potatoes and heavy puddings, replacing them with foods which are light but which also contain the same body building qualities of the heavier foods. This means drinking plenty of fresh milk and also eating abundantly of foods containing skim milk solids, bread, cake, cheese, cookies and ice cream.

Skim milk solids are milk with the fats and the water removed. They contain all the minerals and vitamins of the whole milk except that which is supplied in eating butter. They are rich in bone and tooth building mineral salts. Their protein is a rich source of muscle and tissue building material, while the lactose in skim milk solids is particularly valuable for keeping the intestinal tract in a healthy condition.

Cheese and ice cream naturally contain the skim milk solids. The slight effort which it takes to see that the bread and other bakery goods purchased for the family are made with skim milk solids will be rewarded by increased health and vitality during the trying months.

Eleanor Gunn Says

A revival of fringe is reported from smart byways. Several recent arrivals from Paris have appeared wearing fringed gowns.

Corduroy is engaging attention for sports, and is regarded highly in quarters already agog in preparing southern sports clothes.

French cottons designed for sports wear revive the bayadere stripe theme, and are distinctly gay.

Skull caps and other hats made entirely, or partly of fur, are deemed smart, and often form a part of an ensemble consisting of muf and choker.

Printed metal is being emphasized in New York shops, and is offered as the newest evening fabric.

The polo matches made several things clear, one being that tweed bends its knee to no other fabric, it is supreme in the sports world.

While brown is one of the best of the season's colors it does not rank high for the separate coat. The choice is either black or bright blue, tomato red or blue-green.

Red, from brilliant poppy to deep wine, has prestige for evening and is in its deeper shades sometimes combined with blue.

Blue is regarded by style prophets as the Palm Beach color for 1929—this being based presumably on its vogue overseas.

43,000,000 Voters In Political Army

Consent Army of Qualified Voters in History of United States—Numerous Explanations Given for Great Increase of Interest as Manifested by Increased Registration.

(Copyrighted, 1928, by The Associated Press.)

Washington, Oct. 22 (AP).—Voting booths in city and town, village and hamlet, will open their doors a week from tomorrow to the greatest army of qualified voters in the history of the United States—approximately 43,000,000.

How many of these men and women who have registered their intention to cast their ballots will actually do so is a matter of conjecture, but election experts have figured the number as high as 35,000,000. In 1924 the vote for president was 29,891,417.

The more conservative observers place the 1928 vote lower—around 35,500,000, with women playing a major part in the selection of the next president of the United States.

As no governmental agency has ever undertaken the task of determining the number of qualified voters in advance of an election, The Associated Press, through its correspondents, has tabulated the number of potential voters in every state. This list shows enormous gains everywhere in the larger cities. New York, native state of Governor Alfred E. Smith, the Democratic standard bearer, leads with 4,875,721, compared with 3,256,319 persons who voted in 1924. The city of New York—stronghold of Democracy—alone showed a jump of more than half a million.

The old-line Republican state of Pennsylvania is second with 3,942,000 registrations, compared with 2,144,852 who voted four years ago. Illinois is third with 3,250,000, compared with 2,470,067. Ohio is next with an estimated registration of 2,750,000, compared with 2,016,237 voters in 1924, while California, home state of Herbert Hoover, the Republican candidate, is fifth. The registration there is 2,313,816, compared with 1,281,758 who cast their ballots in 1924.

Great Increase in "Solid South."
A development, unusual in American politics, is the great increase in the registration in the Democratic "solid south." For the first time in years the southern states are in the throes of a spirited presidential campaign and reports from every state indicate voters will flock to the polls as never before.

Texas, probably will qualify 1,500,000 voters, in the opinion of Governor Moody, although he believes only 800,000 will actually cast their ballots. The lone star state, in 1924, cast 657,509 presidential ballots.

Big Percentage of Women Voters.
Old-time political observers have had their eyes opened at the remarkable registration of women voters. While a few states make an official attempt to tabulate the potential voters as to sex, figures available are very unusual. Striking an average of the male and female registration it is conservatively estimated that women will cast from 35 to 45 per cent of the total vote in the larger cities. In the rural districts this percentage probably will not be so high.

A few instances to indicate the general trend: Maryland reveals an increase of 72 per cent in the women registrants over 1924. Philadelphia shows an increase of 116 per cent; St. Paul, 72 per cent; Duluth, 46 per cent; St. Louis, 35 per cent and Kansas City, 35 per cent.

Politicians of years of experience, while frankly expressing amazement at the registration figures for the 1928 election, talk confidently for public consumption of the benefits which will come to their candidate. But there is no doubt that privately there has been a big question mark hovering over the huge voters' lists for the managers of both parties.

Various Explanations Given.
Various schools of thought give various explanations for the sudden rush to the registration counters. One element says it's prohibition. Another says it is the religious issue. Another says it's prosperity; still others maintain it is farm relief, water power, tariff, and a dozen other subjects which might affect various localities.

And there are those who may contend that none of these are the issues—that the fight is one of personalities between Hoover and Smith. But at any rate it could be clearly seen that even before the conventions met, and nominated the two major candidates that this was to be a campaign far different from any in past years.

Smith and Hoover have been heard by nearly everybody either in person or by radio, and this is believed by politicians to have given marked stimulus to the eligible voters who were qualified to register.

Women Drive Hard With Arguments.
In addition, women of both major parties have been driving hard with every argument to which women are susceptible to have them qualify. They have filled the whole nation with arguments for Hoover and for Smith, and they have succeeded in drawing an unprecedented number of their sisters to the registration booths.

Then there are the first voters: there are first voters' clubs everywhere, and even "Get Out the First Voters' Clubs." Colleges and universities for young men and for young women are filled with Hoover and Smith Clubs, and the campuses are filled with talk for and against the two candidates.

All in all, if this great outpouring of voters goes to the polls and if the contest is at all close, the determination of the winner may be delayed long enough to keep many on the anxious bench, even if the 15 per cent which as a rule refrains from voting remain at home.

THIS WEEK'S ACTIVITIES AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

This evening the young people of the church will hold a Hallowe'en dance in the parish house beginning at 8:30 o'clock.

Thursday being All Saint's Day, there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 10 a. m. The offering at this service will be the one and only offering of the year for the benefit of the Altar Guild for use in their splendid service.

On Friday evening at 8 o'clock there will be a meeting of the vestry.

Ulster Park W. C. T. U.

"A Truly Wonderful Remedy for Anyone Who Suffers as I Did"

Says This Well-Known Elmira Lady After Nu-Erb Brought Prompt Relief to Stomach and Kidney Disorders and Nervousness.

MRS. MARGARET KNAPP.

"After what Nu-Erb has done for me I will gladly recommend it to anyone who suffers as I did," said Mrs. Margaret Knapp, 759 1/2 Carpenter street, Elmira, N. Y.

"I suffered with gas forming on my stomach after eating something terrible. I was at times afraid to eat because of the distress and misery afterward. I was very nervous and easily irritated, couldn't sleep for long after going to bed at night, and had a very poor appetite. Along with these troubles my kidneys were badly disordered. I had pains across my back and was called up frequently at night to get relief."

"I had heard about Nu-Erb helping so many here, but it was not until I saw in the papers that a man whom I knew quite well had been helped by it that I decided to give it a trial. My only regret now is that I didn't get it before, for it worked wonders with me. My stomach is now in such fine shape that I can enjoy a full meal without being in misery after. All signs of nervousness have gone away, my kidneys give me very little trouble, I have a good appetite and sleep soundly all night long. All my friends remark of the wonderful change in me and I am always glad to say a good word for Nu-Erb out of gratitude for the way this medicine has helped me."

Indigestion—gas and bloating—wild heart palpitation—awful headaches—loss of weight—sour stomach and cramps—burning sensation from the throat to the pit of the stomach—these are some of the symptoms of a disordered stomach. Persons who take Nu-Erb say there is nothing like this medicine to put a stop to such distress and misery and at the same time it quiets the nerves, strengthens the kidneys, purifies the blood and cures many forms of rheumatism and neuritis.

McBride's Drug Store, 312 Wall street, is the only place in Kingston where Nu-Erb may be purchased. Go see the Nu-Erb man now making his headquarters there and let him explain to you more fully the merits of this remarkable medicine.

Into the Realms of Operatic Romance

Wotan's Farewell from Wagner's The Valkyrie

The all electric radio is bringing the opera to millions of music lovers. Such entertainment in the past has been the privilege of only those who lived in cities large enough to support an opera company. Now the inspiring orchestrations of Wagner, the lovely melodies of Verdi and the lyrical scores of Puccini can be "drawn from the air" by anyone, no matter where his home may be.

But true radio reproduction of operatic numbers is only possible if the set is in perfect operating condition. "A," "B" and "C" power must be adequate and balanced. An all electric radio gives you this assurance.

Col. Lindbergh Flies to St. Louis To Register for Hoover Vote, He Telegraphs the Candidate

MR. HOOVER AND COL. LINDBERGH

Calling the election of Herbert Hoover of supreme importance to the nation, Charles A. Lindbergh wired the Republican candidate as follows:

"I have recently flown to Saint Louis to register. The more I see of this campaign the more strongly I feel that your election is of supreme importance to the country. Your qualities as a man and what you stand for regardless of party make me feel that the problems which will come before our country during the next four years will be best solved under your leadership." To his telegram Mr. Hoover replied: "I wish to express my deep appreciation of your message. The confidence of men of your character brings both encouragement and inspiration to me."

Four Aged Women Will Cast Ballots

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 29 (P)—An indication of the intense interest in this year's presidential election is to be found in the number of aged voters who are planning to make the trip to the polls on November 6.

Among them are four women whose ages aggregate 114 years, but who are firmly determined to cast their vote once more for their favorite candidates.

The oldest is Mrs. Delina Filkins, 113 years old, who recently moved from a farm near Jordanville to Richmond Springs, accompanied by her son, aged 87, and her grandson, aged 60. Then there is Mrs. Eliza Ray, a negro, living in Gloversville, who passed her 104th birthday recently. Mrs. Ray's health is good and she has announced her determination to vote for Hoover.

"Hoover is a good man and I hope he'll rule this country and put down this cursed whiskey," was the way she phrased it.

To these must be added the name of Mrs. Elizabeth Link Rhoda, of East Greenbush, who will celebrate her 99th birthday shortly after the election, on November 22. She also will vote for Hoover, she has declared.

Mrs. Rhoda has voted in every election since the passage of the 19th Amendment and has been consistently a supporter of the Republican ticket. She was born on a farm near Luther, in 1829.

Mrs. Jane Mandeville, of Point Crane, plans to make the casting of her vote this year something of a birthday celebration. Mrs. Mandeville will be 98 years old on November 5, but plans to mark the occasion by going to the polls the following day.

Municipal Rights

A municipality is an incorporated city, town, village or borough possessing a charter of incorporation conferring privileges of local self-government.

Hunters Must Return Coupon

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 29 (P)—The New York State Conservation Department today issued a warning to all deer hunters to comply with the law which requires the prompt return to the department of a coupon from their hunting licenses for every deer killed.

Under the Conservation Law the duplicate coupon attached to the deer hunting license must be forwarded to the Conservation Department at Albany within 10 days. Failure to comply with this provision of the law makes the hunter liable to a fine of from $10 to $100 on conviction of a misdemeanor, and additional civil penalties amounting to $50.

In 1927, there were prosecutions under this clause and hunters paid $1,611.50 in settlement of the cases. Only one defendant was acquitted. According to officials of the department, the purpose of the coupon provision is to insure the collection of accurate data as to the number of deer killed; the localities in which they were killed; and the age of the deer, in order to determine how the state's deer herd is developing, and whether any change in the season is necessary.

At the same time, the department warned, hunters must not overlook the other four coupons attached to the license. In this connection each coupon bears an excerpt from the Conservation Law as follows: "When a deer is taken the taker must immediately fill in this section of the coupon and attach it to the quarter of deer designated hereon. When the coupon has been attached it must not be removed until deer is consumed."

Old Surgical Operations
Surgical operations were performed by the ancients. Among such operations were trephining, or fracture of the skull, and the crushing and extraction of stones in the bladder. Of course these were all operations performed without anesthesia.

TWENTIETH PRESIDENTIAL VOTE

When voters throughout the country go to the polls on November 6, Herbert Hoover will get one vote from a Syracuse, N. Y., citizen who cast his first vote 70 years ago, when Whigs were still an American political factor and when Franklin Pierce defeated Gen. Winfield Scott for the presidency. It will be the twentieth time Otis B. Cowles of 1304 Harrison street has voted in a presidential election, and just for good measure November 6 also will be his 87th birthday.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 20 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers. Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, just a healing, soothing vegetable laxative mixed with olive oil. No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action. If you have a "dark brown mouth" — had breath — a dull, tired feeling — sick headache — torpid liver — constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime. Thousands take them every night to keep right. Try them. 15c, 30c, 60c.

LAST NIGHT
on the RADIO

Sunday evening reception was first class. The Westchester program came through far better than ever before and the old songs for deaf folks were fully as well received. There was a trifle of static during the Atwater Kent hour, but not enough to spoil the program. There was no local interference, with the exception of a very few snarls. Even WGY failed to gargle and fade. DX was negligible. Afternoon reception was also good, with more DX than Sunday night. Reception this morning was very strong.

"What sort of a reception did your wife give you when you got home?"
"Ah, the dear woman threw flowers at me."
"Good gracious! How did you get that black eye, then?"
"She neglected to take the flowers out of the pot."

THE CHAIN GANG
The melancholy days are here,
And there's a darn good reason;
The overcast I wore last year
Won't stand another season.
—Washington Star

The melancholy days are here,
You bet there's a good reason.
Last spring I hooked my overcoat,
And now I'm nearly freezing.
—Cincinnati Enquirer

The melancholy days are here,
I don't upon my soul,
Know where to get a good money, dear,
To buy my winter's coat.
—Newark Advocate

The melancholy days are here,
When there'll be frequent freezes;
Those birds will say, I wonder, dear,
Where last year's beebees is?

Lady, you need a closed car—that would keep you away from prowling squirrels.
The train came to a sudden stop between stations with a tremendous grinding of brakes. Immediately a worried-looking man rushed down the track and demanded the reason of the guard.
"What is it?" he asked. "An accident?"
"Somebody pulled the communication cord," was the reply. "The driver put on the brakes too quickly, and one of the cars went off the rails.
We'll be held up about four hours."

"Four hours!" exclaimed the passenger.
"But I'm to be married to-day!"
Instantly the guard turned on him.
"Say," he demanded, "you ain't the fellow who pulled the cord, are you?"
Guest: "Delightful party you're having tonight, old man. I understand it is for your wife."
Host: "Yes, it is the twelfth anniversary of her thirtieth birthday."

Now that it is definitely settled that Coolidge will not run again, we can see no good reason why he should not fish with worms for bait if he wants to.
That's Life.
First, water is thrown over you;
Second, rice;
Third, and last, dirt.

A town is a place where you have to spend money every time you turn around or don't.

Taking No Chances
A Kingston clerk brought his umbrella into the office and stood it up in the rack.
The boss looked at him curiously.
"What you got that for?" he asked.
"It isn't raining and doesn't look like rain."
"I know, but some of the wife's relatives are out at the house and this is the only umbrella I own."

One of the grocers in Kingston was striving hard to add a few cents to the total value of his sales.
"We've got some fine alligator pears," he suggested.
"Silly," laughed the young housewife. "We don't even keep goldfish."

Character is what you are; reputation is what the neighbors knock into a cocked hat.
Where there's a will, there's a relative.

Food Mileage

Fueling the household machine is an important item these days. After all, on the road of daily life, most of us have to get the last mile out of every dollar we spend.

High food mileage means careful buying . . .
thoughtful selection of the foods that not only suit the taste and physical needs of the family, but the pocketbook as well.

That's the value of advertising. Every day, here in your paper, are presented new and interesting food ideas. New ways of preparing old, reliable favorites. New combinations of the foods the family needs . . . in ways they'll like.

Standard, unvarying quality is the outstanding feature of advertised merchandise in general . . .
and of food products in particular. Quite a factor in getting high food mileage!

Read the food advertising in your daily paper . . . it will show you the way to higher food mileage.

Financial and Commercial
New York, Oct. 29 (AP).—Marking up of the call money rate from 7 1/2 to 8 per cent showed up the resumption of the upward price movement in today's stock market. Fluctuations of profit taking swept through the list, but the offerings were well absorbed. Pools again played a prominent part in the day's operations, lifting more than a score of issues to record high levels on gains running as high as 10 points.
With the market apparently paying little attention to the high increase in brokers' loans, and the high call money rates regarded as temporary, operators for the rise had little difficulty in attracting an outside following. Large commissions were reported that speculative interest throughout the country with customers' rooms crowded and accounts generally well margined.
The excellent character of the majority of earnings reports now being published, coupled with reports of market improvement in the oil and copper industries and a bullish note in the steel industry, helped to maintain bullish enthusiasm. Short selling of late has been rather sporadic in character, due to the relatively small floating supply of some of the most popular issues.
Motor products, which was weak Saturday, rallied 1 1/2 points. K. H. May ran up 9 1/2 points to a new peak at 18 1/2 and Radio ran up more than 6 points to a new top at 24 1/2. American Telephone, Western Union, Industrial Rayon, Atlantic City, Edison, Montgomery Ward, Adams Express, Hudson Motors, Case, and A. M. Byers all sold 4 to 6 points higher.
High-grade rails took a more prominent part in the upswing. Delaware and Hudson, Pittsburgh and West Virginia and Canadian Pacific all selling 5 1/2 to 7 points higher. St. Louis Southwestern attained a new peak price for the year.

Little Ball Puzzles
Wahabi Polo Players
Bagdad, Iraq. The Wahabi tribesmen, who are taking up modern sports under the tutelage of British officers, have their own ideas of how polo should be played.
The first game played between a team of natives and a team of soldiers has just been played here with almost disastrous results.
The natives were armed with polo sticks and lined up. Then the ball was set in motion in the orthodox manner. Instead of following the ball, the natives got together in mass formations with their sticks held high and charged the soldiers' team.
Afterwards they explained that they thought the sticks were provided for a free fight and that the ball was used to divert their attention while the soldiers gave them a good whacking.

Market for Fruits And Vegetables

New York, Oct. 29 (AP).—(State Department of Agriculture and Markets).—The cooler weather had stimulated a more active demand for cabbage this morning and the undertone of the market was firmer. Price changes, however, were few and small. White cabbage from the western part of the state, in bulk, ranged at $3.50-$4.00, principally $3.75 per ton.

Green grape supplies were moderate. Trading was rather slow and the market closed inactive with prices tending lower. Sales on a cash basis ranged from $1.50 to $2.00 per bushel, with some as low as $1.00. A better feeling prevailed on the market for white potatoes. Prices showed no material change, but the demand was considerably improved. Upstate New York round white potatoes in bulk peddled out at $1.50 per 150 pounds. Maine round white potatoes realized $2.25-$2.50, mostly around $2.15.

Fancy, well-balanced celery met a fair sale but ordinary, green and small stock received scant attention. Supplies were moderate. State celery in the rough, packed in two-birds crates, brought $2.75-$3.25, occasionally $3.50 on the very finest; $2.25 on fair quality and $1.75-$2.00 on poor. Michigan celery sold at $1.75-$1.85 per highball crate.

Of the 113 carloads of celery received on the New York market during the preceding week, this state contributed 74.

Greening apple prices averaged higher under active buying and the market ruled stronger. Receipts from all sections of the state were moderate. Barreled U. S. Grade No. 1, 2 1/2 inch Greenings withdrawn from cold storage commanded $6.50-$7.00 and 2 1/4 inch stock $6.50-$7.00.

Arrivals of western New York apples were moderate. The market was a trifle improved with the demand for Muckland carrots unwashed, in model baskets, jobbed out at $1.25-$1.50 while washed offerings brought $1.50-$1.75.

The market on fancy Boston lettuce was steady. Offerings from this state were moderate and trading was fairly good. Sales on crates of 24 heads were at $7.75-$1.75. Most sales on romaine were reported at $1.25.

Three Nuns Are Burned to Death

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 29 (AP).—Three nuns were burned to death in a fire which destroyed a convent at Gaithe Point, Que., today. Another was injured.

An overheated furnace is believed to have caused the fire.

According to Fire Chief Charron, the three nuns who lost their lives stood at the top of a fire escape screaming for help when he arrived. They did not come down, however, presumably because they were in flight, and attempted to re-enter the burning building to find their clothing.

Eight sisters were in the convent. Four escaped uninjured.

The convent, of three stories built of wood, was erected more than 50 years ago.

Kingston High And Middletown Play Tie Game

Each Score Touchdown That Fall to Kick Extra Point—Mohr, Kingston Center, Blocks Point—Aerial Attack Big Factor in Aiding Middletown Score.

The Kingston High School varsity football played a tie game with Middletown Saturday at the Orange county school's gridiron, each scoring a touchdown. Neither team made the extra point. The Middles were unable to do anything against Kingston when it came to line plunges and end runs, but their aerial attack yielded results. It was by this method of gaining that they scored in the last quarter. Mohr, Kingston's center, blocked a kick at the end of the first quarter which resulted in Kingston's scoring.

The Middletown squad was unable to gain on the Maroon and White line. The Middles made six first downs to Kingston's three. The Orange county team made all their first downs by passes in spite of the fact that Kingston's backfield men knocked down the majority of them.

Kingston Scores.

The early part of the first quarter was devoted to the exchange of punts. Watts, Kingston's fullback, made beautiful punts for fifty and sixty yards, and the Middles were unable to advance the ball for Kingston's ends, Jones and Shields, were there every time to tackle the man before he took a step. It was this that led to the local's chance to score.

It really looked as though both teams were practicing punting for a while. Fortunate of Middletown kicked to Kingston's thirty yard line. Meagher immediately called for a punt and Watts booted the ball to the Orange county team's twenty yard line, a distance of fifty feet. Middletown was unable to advance the ball and they tried to punt out of danger but it was this time that Mohr blocked the kick. Mohr picked up the ball and ran within a distance of about a yard from the goal line. Meagher on a line plunge finished up the work carrying the ball over the final white strip. Clarke failed to kick the extra point.

Kingston then kicked off to Middletown and the rest of the half was given to plays through the line on the part of both teams, the ball remaining in the middle of the field most of the time.

In the third quarter, Kingston took off big gains on end runs and line plunges which looked for a while as if they might score again. Minasian intercepted a pass on his forty yard line and ran it down to Middletown's thirty-five yard line, a gain of twenty yards. Kingston then made a first down on successive line smashes by Watts and Meagher. Merrill and Minasian also made gains on off tackle plunges.

Kingston advanced the ball to the Middles' twenty yard line but was unable to go further. The Middles received the ball on downs. Kingston held them for three downs and on the fourth they were forced to punt. Anterio booted the ball to Kingston's forty yard line. Meagher caught the pigskin and advanced it to the fifty yard stretch. The whistle then blew which ended the third quarter.

Middletown Scores.

For some reason or other, Kingston's interference on end runs was not so good. Minasian was thrown for big losses and although the locals were losing ground, they kept the Middles worrying; but Kingston finally lost the ball on downs.

Middletown was turned back every time they tried to gain through the line, and it was after three unsuccessful attempts that they finally resorted to the aerial game. Hawk tossed a pass to Studin which was completed. Studin then made a lateral pass to Massey, who carried the ball to Kingston's twenty yard line. It was a beautiful play and a good gain, but this run looked out when the Middles tried to gain through the line three times, but did not meet success. Kingston again lived up to its reputation which it has established in the DUSO League, as being one of the best teams on defense.

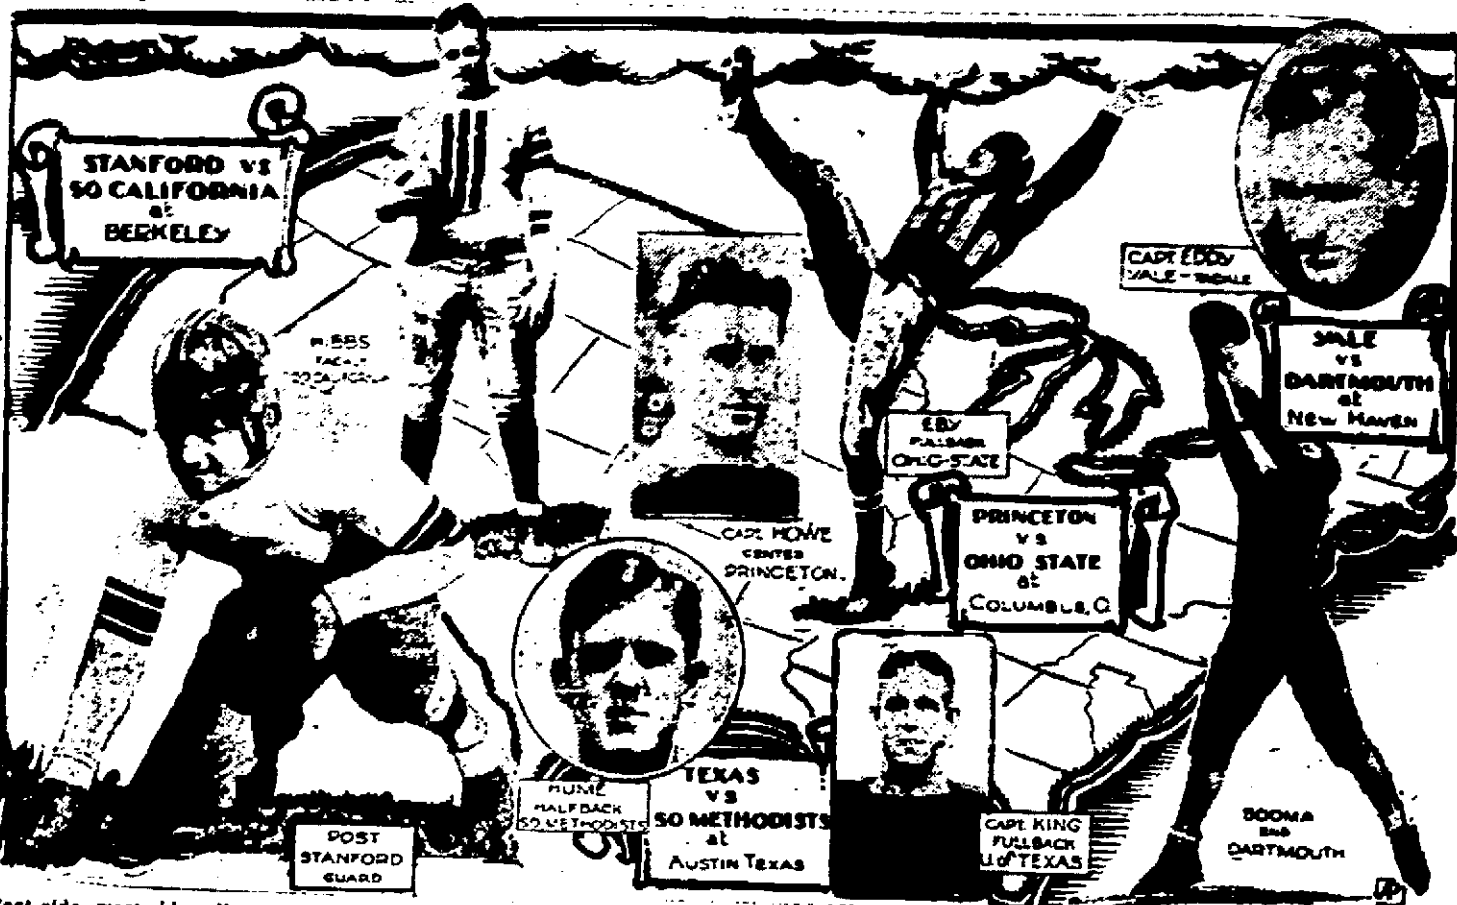

It was the Middles' fourth down and the ball was on Kingston's twenty-five yard line when Anterio shot a pass into the waiting arms of Shultz, who dropped the ball after being tackled by Minasian. It was a free for all ball but a Middletown man recovered the fumble and it was another first down for the Orange county team with the pigskin on the fifteen yard line. The Middles then made two fruitless attempts to gain through the line and on the third down Hawk again threw a pass to Shultz who made a dive in the air after the ball and caught it. The pigskin was about a foot from the goal line and Anterio took it over the last white mark on a line plunge. They failed to make the after touchdown point which resulted in the tie 6-6.

Kingston received the ball on the kick off and they kept the pigskin in their possession for the remainder of the game. They made a first down on a pass to Jones. The local advanced the ball to the forty yard line where Clarke tried to drop kick but the oval fell short but a few feet from the goal post. This was Kingston's last attempt to gain victory, for following this the whistle blew ending the battle.

McDonald sure played a wonderful defensive game. He was also there to help when holes were opened in other parts of the line.

Mohr played a wonderful game both on defense and offense. He was knocked out just before Middletown scored but this didn't stop him from leading his own in the line.

two boys to open up a hole in any defense.

The Middles seemed to pick Thompson quite a few times to run plays through, but they picked a poor spot, for it is not very often that gains are made through him.

Fisher does get down under those punts, he's pretty near there as soon as Jones and Shields and between the three of them the man catching the kick doesn't get very far.

Watts can kick the ball, and he does his share of gaining through the line.

Saturday, November 3, Kingston plays Port Jervis at the Fair Grounds. This game will decide Kingston's chances of winning the DUSO League.

The line-up:

Kingston (6) Middlestown (6)

L.E.—Jones Cook
L.T.—McDonald Jones
L.G.—Clarke
C.—Mohr
R.G.—Fisher
R.T.—Thompson
R.E.—Shields
Q.E.—Meagher
L.H.R.—Minsian
R.H.B.—Merrill
F.R.—Watts

Officials—Referee, Walker. Umpire, Ross.

Substitutes—Kingston: Lynch for Cook, Scott for Jones, Reilly for Seely, Lewis for Copozella, Cohen for Hoffman, Redfield for Beakes, Shultz for Hughes, Hawk for Guerrero, Nancey for Clodell, Opon for Moken, Anterio for Fotino.

Three Touchdowns in Second.

Three touchdowns went to Kingston's credit during the second quarter. The session started with the ball in the Yellow Jackets' possession on Kingston's 45-yard line. A pass to Shuffel for about 10 yards gain and several successful line plunges brought the ball to the up-staters' 30-yard line. MILLIKEN then took the ball down to the Cohoes 15-yard line. Vince Rice received a pass for Kingston's third touchdown.

After Cohoes kicked off and Winters received the ball, which he advanced to the center of the field, MILLIKEN made another run. This time his trot of 40 yards was good for a touchdown. The Yellow Jackets fourth of the day. Colvin got the next six markers in the same quarter, when he intercepted a forward pass on the Cohoes 40-yard line and made a dash through the opposing field.

Cohoes All-Stars Not in Class of Yellow Jackets

Boys From Upstate Were No Match for Local Gridblers, Who Easily Roll Up Fifty Points—West Point Players Help Cohoes in Second Period.

The Yellow Jackets defeated the Cohoes All-Stars, an eleven much overrated by its manager at the Kingston Fair Grounds Sunday afternoon. Kingston held the upstaters scoreless, while they rolled up 50 points.

A representative gathering, considering the somewhat disagreeable weather Sunday afternoon, saw the tilt, which violated all forecasts that it would be one of the best ever staged on the local gridiron. The Cohoes players, far from being the giants mentioned by the upstate manager to George Brooks and Ray Craft, mentors of the Yellow Jackets, lacked much knowledge concerning the gridiron sport.

Stanley Colvin, a mainstay in the Kingston backfield had little trouble getting through the Cohoes aggregation for long gains. Colvin scored five of Kingston's eight touchdowns, which was not bad going for a day's work on the gridiron. Stan had toughest going in the second half when "Beany" Beaman, "Hippo" Hoff and Burton, three West Point artillerymen, hired by the Kingston managers to avoid an overwhelming attack by the much heralded Cohoes "stars," were loaned to the upstaters by the Yellow Jackets in order to make things more interesting for the spectators. The soldiers' efforts made matters tougher for the Jackets, but did not stop the locals from continuing their scoring. "Hippo" Hoff was an outstanding figure once he got in the tilt for he started a reorganization of the Cohoes team and got the eleven working more effectively.

Score Touchdown at Start.

The Yellow Jackets started on the scoring road early in the tilt. Less than five minutes of the first quarter had been played when Harry Shuffel crossed the goal line for a touchdown. Stanley Colvin later scored another during the opening quarter.

Cohoes kicked off and the ball landed on the Yellow Jackets five yard line. Stanley Colvin grabbed the oval and raced for a gain of about 40 yards, which put the ball near the center of the field. Joe Hoffman then darted through the line for several gains and a forward pass received by Colvin on about the 18 yard marker. Harry Shuffel got the next pass and raced across the goal line for the first touchdown of the game.

The Yellow Jackets did not make the extra point. The locals then kicked off to Cohoes. The runner, who nabbed the ball, made but a short gain. After several line plunges the up-staters tried a forward pass, which was intercepted by Joe Hoffman. Winters took the ball for two successive gains, and on the next play Vince Rice bounded into the air to receive a neat forward pass from Joe Hoffman. Another pass for about 10 yards was registered, that made Kingston's second first down of the quarter, and on the third aerial play Stanley Colvin was on the receiving end and crossed the last white line for the second touchdown of the game. This ended the scoring for the quarter.

Three Touchdowns in Second.

Three touchdowns went to Kingston's credit during the second quarter. The session started with the ball in the Yellow Jackets' possession on Kingston's 45-yard line. A pass to Shuffel for about 10 yards gain and several successful line plunges brought the ball to the up-staters' 30-yard line. MILLIKEN then took the ball down to the Cohoes 15-yard line. Vince Rice received a pass for Kingston's third touchdown.

After Cohoes kicked off and Winters received the ball, which he advanced to the center of the field, MILLIKEN made another run. This time his trot of 40 yards was good for a touchdown. The Yellow Jackets fourth of the day. Colvin got the next six markers in the same quarter, when he intercepted a forward pass on the Cohoes 40-yard line and made a dash through the opposing field.

West Point Players Help.

The third quarter saw the ball in the Cohoes territory most of the time. Of course the Cohoes team fought hard in this session when they were spurred on by Beany, Hoff and Burton, but even the presence of the strong artillerymen did not stop Kingston's advances. After scrambling about with the ball in the Yellow Jackets' possession most of the time, a forward pass shot from the 30-yard line landed in the hands of Stanley Colvin, behind the goal line, for Kingston's sixth touchdown of the game.

Managers Brooks and Craft did not announce what team would play the Yellow Jackets next Sunday. Disappointed about Sunday's game they state that further notices from managers concerning ability of Yellow Jacket opponents would be disregarded. It is likely that the local managers will make a thorough investigation of future opponents' records before they will be permitted to stack up against the Kingston representatives.

Army Must Win Over Three Strong Teams for Honors

Notre Dame, Nebraska and Stanford Will Attempt to Take Fall Out of Soldiers—N. Y. U. Plays Georgetown on Saturday.

New York, Oct. 29. (P.)—West Point's gridiron forces, having hurdled the two main eastern obstacles to its advance by downing Harvard and Yale in succession, now need only to conquer Notre Dame, Nebraska and Stanford to clinch as good a claim as any eleven to national championship honors.

It takes an army to even face such a prospect with resolution, and plenty of reserves. The cadets have come through the October fray successfully, beating Southern Methodist as well as the crimson and blue, but also somewhat bruised and battered. Two of their aces, Captain Sprague, all-American tackle, and Red Cagle, who looks at the moment like an all-American halfback, were injured in the battle with Yale.

There is the prospect of a breathing spell for the West Point regulars this week in the game with De Pauw, but not much let-up after that. Notre Dame, although not up to former high standards is moving along and will give the cadets plenty of trouble at the Yankee Stadium on November 10. Nebraska probably will come east November 24 with the championship team of the Missouri Valley "Big Ten" while Stanford, making the long trek to play Army here December 1, may carry the Pacific coast conference title banner.

Chechny and Niemiec of Notre Dame, Blue Howell of Nebraska and Bill Hoffman of Stanford will be hurled at the big army in an attempt to succeed where French of Harvard and Garvey of Yale failed.

If the army is to be regarded as the favorite of football fancy this season, its child of destiny certainly seems to be Christian Keener Cagle. Cagle will be the counter-threat of fulfilling the role. Not since Red Grange ran rampant on Franklin field three years ago has an eastern gridiron seen anything to match the elusive, slithering runs of Cagle against Yale. Red combines the best features of a slippery eel and a frightened deer at large.

While the Army hopes to get its second win this week, the gridiron campaign moves along to another series of tests having a decisive bearing on title hopes, coupled with a renewal of outstanding inter-sectional rivalries.

N. Y. U. vs. Georgetown.

New York University and Georgetown, each victorious in five straight games and traveling at terrific clip, clash in New York next Saturday in the main battle, so far as eastern championship hopes are concerned. These two high-scoring juggernauts will determine which is to remain up with Army, Carnegie and Boston College among the other major eastern elevens neither beaten nor tied.

In the "Big Six" group, Nebraska after smothering the title hopes of Missouri, plays the only other undefeated eleven in the race, Kansas. The cornhuskers expect to win, inasmuch as they conquered Iowa State, which held Kansas to a tie Saturday.

Another crucial battle, in the southwestern conference, involves the University of Texas and Southern Methodist, both undefeated in conference competition so far.

The Pacific coast conference focuses upon the Stanford-Southern California game, one of the most spectacular in sight anywhere this week. It should have a decisive bearing on the conference title race while California is entertaining Oregon in another vital contest.

The southern conference has something of a let-up this week, with comparatively little opposition ahead for most of the contenders—Georgia Tech., Vanderbilt, Tennessee, Clemson, Florida and Georgia.

In the western conference "Big Ten" Illinois will attempt to hold its place in the vanguard by defeating Michigan in its straight outback City.

The Magician

Paris Double to Star in "Lindbergh" Play

Paris.—As the result of a false rumor circulated around Paris that Colonel Lindbergh was visiting the capital, a tall, slim, blond youth passing along the boulevards was suddenly surrounded by a cheering crowd.

It took Pierre Tristan several minutes to convince the excited crowd that he was only a department store clerk, but, Sacha Guitry, actor-manager, learned of the incident and now Tristan is to become one of the youngest stars in France. He is undergoing an intensive training, and M. Guitry says the public will be startled by his likeness to the colonel. He will star in a play that has to do with Colonel Lindbergh's experiences in France and contains a love theme.

LIFE, SEALED 100,000,000 YEARS, REPRODUCES SELF

California University Professor Has Success in Experiments With Micro-organisms.

Berkeley, Calif.—Announcement by Dr. C. B. Lipman, professor of plant physiology at the University of California, that he believed he had revived micro-organisms which had lain dormant in rock for 100,000,000 to 200,000,000 years is under the scrutiny of science here.

The announcement made by Doctor Lipman, who reported his discoveries to the American Association for the Advancement of Science, said that these ancient organisms not only lived, but even reproduced their kind under culture. At least one and perhaps two of the organisms so produced were declared by Doctor Lipman to be totally unlike anything known to science up to the present.

Followers of Doctor Lipman said that if the process could be continued with variations, the modern world might have an opportunity to examine the living organisms perhaps similar to those first on earth, and that discoveries regarding the first generation of life might be forthcoming.

Doctor Lipman began his experiments a year and a half ago with rock from Canada of the pre-Cambrian age, the first period of geological history.

All the resources of modern bacteriology were used to prevent the cultures in which the micro-organisms were placed from coming into contact with free air or other agencies by which modern bacteria might invade the ancient rock.

Doctor Lipman said some of the pre-Cambrian rocks had been exposed to the air within comparatively recent times, but that he took every possible precaution to use sections of the rock so encased by other rocks that organisms sealed up there were virtually certain to have been isolated. From these sealed up rock centers he took micro-organisms apparently dead, and placed them in culture plates, again sealing them from all contact with the modern world.

In this manner, he said, he produced spore-bearing rods, appearing in chains, which he was convinced were indigenous to the rock itself. Evidently the ancestors of the micro-organisms found had been spore-producers, and their tiny offspring had been able to seal themselves up somehow in the manner that larvae are sealed up in cocoons.

Japan Has Felt 27,097 Quakes Since 1923

Tokyo.—Japan has had an average of fifteen earthquakes a day in the five years since the great 1923 disaster destroyed Yokohama and five-eighths of Tokyo.

On the fifth anniversary of that tragedy the Central Meteorological observatory issued a report showing that 27,097 quakes affecting some part of Japan had been registered on its instruments since the big crash.

More than one-third of these tremors, or 9,220, were perceptible to human faculties, the report showed. Tokyo was affected by 4,150 shocks during the five-year period, more than half these coming in the six-months following the big 1923 disaster. Seven shocks caused loss of life and extensive property damage to various sections of the country during the five years.

Norfolk, Va. (AP).—Two couples—newlyweds—had to journey all the way from Jersey to Norfolk to become acquainted although they lived near each other on the same street at home.

The same waitresses served them the same kind of dinners, and after introducing themselves they found that they had the same things in common—home, a wedding date, honeymoon trip and all.
